

SECRETS & CONFLICTS

Between Daughters & Mothers

A PERSONAL & PROFESSIONAL 3-HOUR WORKSHOP
For Women Therapists

Facilitated by LouAnn Smith, L.C.S.W. and Roberta Estar, Ph.D.

Experience a thought-provoking and creative approach to the daughter-mother relationship from your point of view as a daughter

Learn tools to work creatively in your own life and in your practice:

- * sex, privacy & taboos as a reflection of changing times, changing roles, changing identities
- * mapping the meaning and power of secrets and conflicts
- * using rituals to acknowledge, preserve or release secrets

Who: WOMEN THERAPISTS
When: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23rd, 2009
Where: ICP – 1841 Broadway, NYC 4th floor Conference Room
Time: 6PM - 9PM
Fee: $65.00 For students and candidates: $50.00
Fee includes a light dinner

PLEASE REGISTER BY OCT. 14th

To Register: Please make check payable to ICP and mail it with the form below to:

ICP, 1841 Broadway, New York, NY 10023, Att: Mary

A packet of articles and other information will be mailed to you prior to the workshop.

(For questions, call or email Roberta Estar: 212-213-2635 or: Beltara@earthlink.net)

DAUGHTER-MOTHER WORKSHOP

Sponsored by the FACTS Division of ICP, 1841 Broadway, New York, NY 10023

Check enclosed (please check one): $65.00 $50.00

Name _____

Affiliation: _____

Address _____

Phone (w) _____ (h) _____

Email _____